organizes

Faculty Development Program on “Financial Services”

21st to 23rd October, 2016

GTU's PG Research Centre for Financial Services (CFS) is organizing a Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Financial Services” for the faculties of GTU MBA affiliated Institutes during October 21-23, 2016.

This is first of its kind of FDP, where the faculties of GTU will explore the practical know-how about the financial industry and financial services. All the sessions will be delivered by the financial industry experts during the FDP will be applied in nature. CFS will be calling the experts from all the relevant domains of the financial services sector like SEBI, Stock Exchange(s), Banks, Private Equity, Microfinance, Agro Finance, etc.

The proposed focused areas to be covered during the FDP are as follows:

- Development in Banking Sector
- Importance of Microfinance and its scope
- Role of Private Equity in funding
- New Accounting Standards and its scope
- Agro Finance and its importance in rural areas
- IPO/SME Listing procedures
- Credit Rating agencies and its significance
- SEBI and its procedural aspects
- Procedural aspects of Stock Exchanges
- Hand-on experience of Live Trading Platform

Faculties who want to sharpen their knowledge and skills into the financial services sector are cordially invited to attend this three days FDP at GTU. There are very limited seats, hence seats will be allotted at the first-come-first-serve basis. All the participants will be allotted a Certificate of Participation.
