SHRI MATA VAISHNO DEVI UNIVERSITY
A PROPOSAL FOR ORGANIZING
NORTH INDIA STUDENT PARLIAMENT

(उत्तर भारतीय छात्र संसद)

(27-28 February, 2017)

“YOUTH: THE BACKBONE OF DEMOCRACY”

ABOUT:

The North India Student Parliament (NISP) is a non-political platform proposed for the purpose of sensitizing the youth of North India towards Nation Building and the emerging prospects for the youth in this regard. The theme of the proposed parliament is “Inspiring Youth, Strengthening Democracy”. It is a platform where eminent experts, members across party lines, scientists, media and social organizations enlighten the youth on the issues related to contemporary challenges to nation building and to bring about a change that will propel the country forward. The NISP is a classroom that will tutor to nearly 300 students of the age group of 18-25. It will provide lessons on the functioning of democracy, the economic scenario and technological advancements of the country and encourage the students to serve the society by entering public life and attaining leadership roles. We try to create an environment so that committed, educated and spirited youth participate in democracy, polity, social initiatives and contribute towards evolving a healthy democracy and accountable governance.

MISSION:

To ignite the spirit of the youth of today and provide them training to help inculcate spirited and socially sensitive values right during their years of self-making. NISP aims at raising the extent of sensitivity, awareness, involvement, responsiveness, access and the say of youth in the political and democratic processes, so that a healthy democratic system is ensured and further strengthened as per the need of the hour.

SUB-THEMES:

Vision 2035: Work hard vs. work smart

Contributing to nation from one's own condition in society

Is military strength unavoidable for strengthening the nation?

Primacy of ethics to economy for nation building

Does education have a key role in nation building?

Constitutional patriotism instead of sentimental patriotism
